

Draw a circle around five words on the globe that are some good ways to break or end stereotypes.

THE CHALLENGE: Tell your friends and family what you have learned about the right to freedom of religion or belief.