

Vocabulary review

PREAMBLE	> A proper sense of respect or pride or worth that we are born with.
INHERENT	> A statement that introduces or tells you what a document is about.
EQUAL	> A right is like a rule that exists because it is fair or the correct thing to do. A human right is a right we have just because we are human beings.
INALIENABLE	> An internal characteristic or feeling that every person is born with.
DIGNITY	> Something that is the same as something else.
RIGHTS	> Something that cannot be taken away.

Match the definition with the right word.

F	J	P
R	U	E
E	S	A
D	T	C
O	I	E
M	C
RIGHTS
EQUALITY
DIGNITY FOUNDATION

We need a solid FOUNDATION of RIGHTS, EQUALITY and DIGNITY in order to have FREEDOM, JUSTICE and PEACE.

In other words, everyone should respect the DIGNITY that we're born with and the RIGHTS that are EQUAL and cannot be taken away from us, in order to have FREEDOM and JUSTICE and PEACE in the world.

THE CHALLENGE: Let your light shine and tell your friends and family about your new words.