

We Are Accepted before the Law

Look at what the Universal Declaration of Human Rights says in Article 6 about this right that belongs to all of us.

Article 6

You have a right to be accepted everywhere as a person before the law.

Do you think this article is important? Why?
Write your opinion.

Handwriting practice area with five horizontal lines for writing an opinion.

THE CHALLENGE: Memorize Article 6 and recite it to your parents or guardian. Ask them what they think about it.