

COLEGA LIVE TRAINING OUTLINE FOR SECONDARY

The central objectives of the training focuses on guiding those being trained to engage with the manual and to practice teaching and discussing lessons with one another. Note: Teachers will need access to a manual or view a manual on the website. Give manuals to teachers at the beginning of the training and encourage them to take notes in them.

		2	Human rights education is important in the life of every child.
		3	The 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights created by the United Nations after World War II identified 30 specific human rights that apply to everyone, everywhere.
		4	Many children do not know their rights. Teaching children Human Rights brings excitement and critical education to the classroom.
		5	The Colega manual teaches human rights found in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
		6	The Colega manual includes lessons on Equality, Discrimination, Bullying, Marriage and Family, Religion or Belief, Education, and Duty to the Community, among others.
		7	As a member of the United Nations, your country has agreed to uphold and teach the principles and values found in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Colega materials have been developed to help you educate young people in your community on its principles. This manual is provided at no cost by the Geneva Office for Human Rights Education.
		8	Colega means friend. Our logo represents children and their books, emphasizing human rights for all children.
		9	Colega lessons help teachers, administrators and students learn about their rights and responsibilities.
		10	Lessons include songs, stories, activities, questions, discussion and challenges.
9:10	5 min		Lesson Teaching Techniques
		11	Each Colega lesson consists of six components.
		12	Welcome -- The teacher welcomes the students and engages them in a song, chant or poem related to the lesson or one that fits culturally.
		13	Example of a welcome found in the manual
		14	Review --The teacher asks students to share their experiences based on the challenge from the previous lesson. In Lesson 1A the Review is the Initial Assessment.
		15	Example of a review found in the manual
		16	Introduction -- The teacher introduces the human rights article in the lesson by having students read it or by using an activity with questions.
		17	Example of an introduction found in the manual

		18	Development -- The teacher can develop the human right with stories, activities, questions and discussions.
		19	Example of a development found in the manual
		20	Conclusion -- The teacher helps students discover the point of the lesson.
		21	Example of a conclusion found in the manual
		22	Challenge -- The challenge encourages students to apply what they've learned about a human right to their daily lives.
		23	Example of a challenge found in the Secondary Manual, Lesson 2B. The challenge is always located at the end of every lesson in the manuals.
